Deadlock Over Unity Talks Preamble?

Jinnah's Letter To Congress President

RECOGNISE CLAIM OF MUSLIM LEAGUE

Only Representative Body Of Community

The Council of the All-India Muslim League again met on Sunday evening at Mr. Jinnah's residence and approved of the draft of the reply to the Congress President, prepared by its president. The terms of the reply, it is understood, are briefly as follows:

- (1) The Muslim League is prepared to concede the claim that the Congress is a national organisation;
- (2) The Congress must recognise that the League is the only representative body of Mussalmans in India;
- (3) If the Congress insists on calling in for consultations representatives of other Muslim organisations like the Jamiat-ul-Ulema, the League will not be prepared to go on with the negotiations;
- (4) If the Congress concedes the League claim, then at the time of discussion over details of a "Communal pact" representatives of other minorities should be invited to participate.

JINNAH'S LETTER TO SUBHAS BOSE

Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the All-India Muslim League, dispatched the League reply to the Congress memorandum to Babu Subhas Chandra Bose, President of the Indian National Congress, on Sunday evening, after the draft had been formally approved by the Executive Council of the League.

Further enquiries made in Muslim League circles reveal the fact that the deadlock is on the very preamble. The main objection of the League Council is stated to be regarding the proposal that representatives of other Muslim organisations would also be invited for consultations before the Pact is finally signed.

The main feature of the letter of Mr. Jinnah to Babu Subhas Bose is stated to be that the Congress should recognise the All-India Muslim League as the only body representing Mussalmans in India. If that were done, the League would be prepared to go ahead with the negotiations.

Though during early stages of the negotiations Mr. Jinnah was of the view that the Congress should enter into negotiation as a Hindu body, after some discussion, the Council of the Muslim League agreed to the Congress stand, namely, that it is a national organisation.

In brief, the position is this: The League is prepared to concede that the Congress is a national organisation, but the Congress must recognise that the League is the only representative body of the Mussalmans in India. If, however, the Congress insists on calling in for consultation representatives of other Muslim organisations in the country like the Jamiat-ul-Ulema, then the League was not prepared to accept that position and hence would not be ready to go on with the negotiations.

It has also been suggested in the letter, that in case the Congress is agreeable to concede that the League is the only representative Muslim organisation, then during the discussion over the details of a communal pact representatives of other minorities should also be invited so that the rights of all the minorities could be discussed and decided upon. "We have taken up a position of give and take; it is now for the Congress to show that it is also prepared to adopt a similar policy," said a prominent Muslim leader to our representative.

Mr. Jinnah is stated to have placed before the members of the League Council the entire correspondence that passed between him and Gandhiji, him and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and other Congress leaders. It was felt by some members of the Council that both sides had made certain statements in the letters, which ought not to have been made. "Let us forget the past," is stated to be the attitude of the majority of the members of the Council.

Mr. Jinnah, who was authorised to draft the letter, is stated to have placed the draft before the Council meeting on Sunday and the same was approved.

Immediately the reply reaches the Congress President on Tuesday, he is expected to get into communication with members of the Congress Working Committee and Mahatma Gandhi. In view of the last reply of the Congress, which is stated to have contained the farthest limit to which the Congress was prepared to go to concede Mr. Jinnah's demands, it is difficult to say at present, what would be the reply to Mr. Jinnah's latest letter.

The Muslim League Council is also stated to have considered the position of the Mussalmans in different provinces and what should be the rights and safeguards that Muslims in each province should have, in case a conciliatory reply was received from the Congress President. Each member of the Council explained the difficulties of his community in his province and wanted certain safeguards. For example the Muslims of the Punjab wanted that their present rights should not be allowed to be curtailed. They had 66 per cent. representation in the army and were not prepared for any curtailment of that percentage.

The Muslim League Parliamentary Board also met and discussed the parliamentary work to be carried on in the different provinces, where Muslim League Parties were in existence.

LOCK-OUT DECLARED

Indian Iron & Steel Co.'s Workshops Closed: Armed Police Requisitioned

ASANSOL, June 5. Following the threat of a general strike the management of the Indian Iron and Steel Company closed their workshop at Hirapur this morning.

At a meeting of workers at 2 this morning, Mr. Maneck Homi presiding, it was decided that at present the workers should not go on strike from to-day as had been decided earlier.

The workers went to the workshops this morning. They found a notice issued by the management posted on the gates to the effect that as a strike has been declared by the Labour Federation, the workshops remain closed as from seven this morning.

As the lockout was declared by the management, the workers were not allowed to enter the workshops.

Armed police have been requisitioned from Hooghly and Howrah who are now guarding the area. The situation is peaceful.—A. P.

CONGRESS MUST RIGHT NATIONAL WRONG

Mrs. Pandit On Her Eleven Months' Experience

That her eleven months' experience as a Minister had not changed her views about Office Acceptance was emphasised by the Hon. Mrs. Vijayalaxmi Pandit, Minister for Local Self-Government, Government of United Provinces in an interview to the representative of the 'Chronicle.'

The question put to her was "you were a staunch opponent of Office Acceptance. Now that you have been a Minister for eleven months have you changed your views? What is your experience?"

Hon. Mrs. Vijayalaxmi Pandit replied "My eleven months experience as a Minister has confirmed all the doubts I had as to the wisdom of the Congress accepting office. The difficulties that I had merely imagined have materialised and we are daily confronted with them. It is true that the Congress Ministries have been able to accomplish a measure of good. A certain amount of confidence has been created in the minds of those who had lost all hope of a fair deal. In the past, but the fundamentals have not changed.

Negotiations Break Down

ASANSOL, June 5. Negotiations between Mr. M. Homi, Labour Leader, and the Management of the Indian Iron and Steel Company have failed.

In a statement to the Associated Press the Managing Agents of the Indian Iron and Steel Company, Ltd., announce with regret their efforts to avoid the strike and prevent its continuance at Hirapur and Kulti works have been unsuccessful. Two representatives of the Managing Agents were in practically continuous session with the President of the Labour Federation since Friday afternoon. Discussion lasted 22 hours, and the final break came at 11-30 p.m. on Sunday evening.

The statement adds that Mr. Maneck Homi, President of the Labour Federation, while agreeing with the Management on every question of principle at issue, expressed his regret at his inability to persuade the workmen. The Managing Agents have been unavoidably compelled under the circumstances to close operating plants but the Departments, where power is not needed are kept open for those who wish to report for work. Reports of threats of violence to operators of essential services have already reached the Management.

The Management have taken every possible step, with the help of the police and administrative officers of the District, to protect loyal workmen and the Plant.

A further announcement will be made in the course of the next few days.—A.P.

Jinnah's Hit At Congress

Mass Contact Programme, Means To Wreck Award

Anxious For Settlement,—But Between Two Equals

Fazlul Huq Regales Audience With "Story Of Two Thieves"

"An address of appreciation" was presented to Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the All-India Muslim League, by the Memon Chamber of Commerce and the Memon Merchants' Association, on Sunday, at the Kesar Bag, Dongri.

Mr. Jinnah's Service

The address eulogised the service of Mr. Jinnah and stated:—"Although the Congress ostensibly professes Nationalism, it was you who discerned its communalistic mentality which compelled you to organise the Mussalmans so that their right may not be usurped and to induce our Hindu brethren to come to an honourable understanding with us. The results of your efforts is that to-day much of the greater majority of the Mussalmans of India stand united under the League flag, ready to lay their lives at your command. We feel confident that by the Grace of God, that the few Mussalmans who have gone astray will in course of time join us and work along with us under your command, and thus bring about a united front under the League banner."

"LEADERSHIP OF MINORITIES"
"At this important juncture, your leadership of the minorities is a source of satisfaction and confidence to us, when India has obtained provincial autonomy and the proletariat has been given an increasing measure of political power. During the last three years it has been proved that your policy is the correct one, and under your able leadership the scattered and disunited factions of Muslim community have joined hands. The case of the Punjab and Bengal are living proofs of our above assertion."

"FIELD-MARSHAL OF MUSLIMS"
"We Memon in Bombay are a trading community who have always steered clear of politics. In spite of that, we assure you, we have enthusiastically and approvingly watched the success of your efforts. We assure you, that we shall obediently follow you to the extent of laying down our lives in carrying out your commands. Mussalmans in every corner of the country have accepted you as their one and only leader and as their field-marshal. They have fullest confidence in you and your activities in as much as they know that your aim is the welfare of nine million Mussalmans of India. Therefore, please believe us that you have our fullest support and we shall go to any length at your behest so that we may live as free Muslims in free India."

It was signed by Mr. Abdulla Abdul Gaffoor, President, the Memon Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Abdul Karim Haji Janmohamed, President, the Memon Merchants' Association.

PRESENT OF PURSE
Mr. Jinnah was presented with a purse of Rs. 2,154 by the members of the two organisations.

JINNAH'S SURPRISE FOR 1938.
Replying to the address Mr. M. A. Jinnah, speaking in Hindustani, said that he had lived in Bombay since his childhood, and had been in public life for nearly 35 or 40 years now; but he had not upto now received any address or appreciation from any business community. He was glad that the Memon Chamber of Commerce and the Memon Merchants' Association gave him not only an address but a purse also. He was the same Mr. Jinnah, but the difference was in the outlook of the Muslims who indicated their approval of the policy and programme of the Muslim League. It meant that they had approved of the remedy he had prescribed for the ills from which the Muslim community was suffering from. And he was fully confident that they would continue to support the Muslim League.

HIT AT CONGRESS.

He wanted to state clearly that the Congress was not a national organisation. It was an out-and-out communal organisation. If Congress was a national institution, he would never have left it.

Even at the time of his leaving the Congress fold, Mr. Jinnah continued, he had misgivings that the Congress was a communal organisation. Subsequent history had only justified his misgivings. They could see, for instance, what had been happening in the seven Congress Provinces during the period that the Congressmen had held office. If Congress were truly national, it would not have forced the "Vande Mataram" song upon the Muslims. It was a song which wounded the feelings of the Muslims. And not only was it sung at public functions, but even in Government schools where the Muslim children were educated, they were asked to sing it.

MINORITIES PROBLEM

He would say that a leopard would never change his spots. If they scratched the Congressmen they would find the truth of his statement. The minorities question was not a small one. It existed in other countries also. They could not ignore it. There was again the language question. The Congress wanted Hindi or Hindustani to be the "lingua franca" of India. There were nearly eight or nine crores of Muslims and their language was Urdu and there was much difference between Urdu and Hindi or Hindustani. The Congress wanted to make Hindi compulsory in Government and public schools. If the Muslim children were to study Hindi, they would only learn Hindu philosophy, Hindu literature, they would read of Hindu heroes and soon Urdu would fall in its importance. For instance, the Muslims in Bombay learnt Gujarati language and adopted it and they learnt in Gujarati, the Hindu philosophy, the Hindu literature and the Hindu ideals.

Mr. Jinnah next referred to the Muslim Mass Contact campaign (Continued on Page 7).

Jodhpur Police Methods Exposed

Confidential Police Circulars Unearthed: Plot To Crush Popular Movements

The General Secretary of the All-India States' People's Conference sends the following for publication:—

A curious correspondence initiated by the Jodhpur C.I.D. regarding the public workers of that State has come to me for the information of this office of the A. I. S. P. Conference. It throws lurid light on the methods of the police in States which have decided to stem the tide of the crushing forces of Democracy and Nationalism. It is interesting to read this confidential and "strictly confidential" correspondence between the Jodhpur officers of the Jodhpur State.

It will be instructive to know that the Jodhpur State has banned a number of Public Associations, one after the other, and has further declared all future public bodies as illegal where certain unknown Public Workers figure as chief organisers. Having thus secured a complete cessation of all political activities, the Jodhpur C.I.D. has thought fit to discover plans for the formation of Trade Unions and Kisan Sabhas

IS IT A CRIME?

I do not know if there is any such programme of work before the public workers of Jodhpur. But supposing that there is such a plan in the minds of some workers, how is it unlawful to work for the social and economic amelioration of the labour and the kisans? One fails to understand the logic behind this? Is it a crime to work for an increase of wages or reduction of hours? Is it a sin to study the conditions of the peasants and try to better their lot? Why should the Jodhpur Police fight shy of this work? Why should they try to paint it as wicked?

It is also curious to note that while the C.I.D. Inspector alludes to the prospective efforts "to unite labourers and kisans" and create political feelings in them, the I. G. of Police discovers "a possibility of the revival of the acts of terrorism and anarchism." He also asserts confidently that "these acts may possibly be aimed against those who are highly placed and in great authority like heads of Government in British India." This he expects in Jodhpur, while it is fast disappearing.

FUTILE AND DANGEROUS.
I am sure the public will not be misled by this attempt to prejudice the issue. It will know that what the Jodhpur Police really aims at is the destruction of all public spirit in that State, so that "political feelings" are not created amongst the people of that State. They desire to act the part of King Canute in this year of grace 1938. Now I wish the Maharaja and his political advisers will see through the game prepared by the State Police and discourage an attempt which is bound to prove not only futile, but also dangerous to the best interests of the State.

The correspondence reveals the mentality of the Governing Classes in most of the States and shows how the best of workers are misrepresented and condemned. I, therefore, release it to the Press for public information.

Copies Of Letters

(True Copies)
Strictly Confidential.
Dated, 9/2/38.

No. 280.

From, Inspector, C.I.D. Jodhpur.

To, Inspector-General of Police, Government of Jodhpur.

Sir,

Respectfully I have the honour to state that the political agitation of the place, seeing their attempt to influence and cultivate Congress creed in the minds of the gentry, bear no fruit—have now decided to preach Congress sermons to the labourers and the agriculturists who are mostly illiterate through some indirect methods. Consequently they have decided to establish labour Union in Jodhpur and Kisan Sabhas in Mofussils. Under these organisations they will unite labourers and kisans and create political feelings in them and make them to put forth unreasonable and frivolous demands from time to time and when the time comes to lead them to go on strike.

Sd/—Inspector C.I.D.

Forwarded with compliments to the Chief Minister Sahab Government of Jodhpur, Jodhpur for favour of information. The political calcontents, as you are not unaware of the fact, have invented now these weapons named labour Unions and Kisan Sabhas. If they achieve their object through these various activities it is every possibility, that the Government of Jodhpur will have to face a critical situation. Therefore, it is requested that a confidential circular may kindly be issued to all judicial officers as well as to the revenue officers ordering them that they may be alert to meet situations and keep an eye on the mal-contenters. I too, am warning my police officers on the matter.

Sd/—Inspector-General of Police TO DIST. OFFICIALS. (Confidential).

Dated 2nd March 1938. No. 733/25

From, Inspector-General of Police, Government of Jodhpur.

To, The District Superintendent of Police, Jodhpur City, Jodhpur.

Circumstances have arisen which shows that there is a possibility of the revival of the Acts of terrorism and anarchism. These Acts may possibly be aimed against those who are highly placed and Government in British India. You are therefore instructed to be on the look out for such suspects either coming in your districts in order to carry their design in British India in collaboration of suspect living in your district or the latter corresponding with the former in order to assist in any way in their nefarious objects.

Sd/—Inspector-General of Police, Copy to Inspector C.I.D. City Police, Jodhpur.

Sub-Inspector, C.I.D. City Police, Jodhpur for very careful compliance and necessary action. He should also keep under assigned informed from time to time.

Sd/—Superintendent, City Police, Jodhpur.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CORRUPTION

Orissa Govt. To Appoint Committee

CUTTACK, (By Mail). The "United Press" is informed that the Government have already taken steps in the direction of stamping out corruption prevailing in various departments under the Government and in other public institutions.

It is understood that during the first week of May last a Conference of the Heads of all Departments under the Government was held here, at which it was decided that they would submit by the end of June a confidential report giving an idea of the extent of corruption prevailing in their respective departments.

It is proposed to appoint, after receipt of the report, an influential Committee which will go into the whole question and suggest steps that should be taken to purge the Government Departments of all corrupt and malpractices.

The Committee will, it is further understood, frame a comprehensive "questionnaire" and circulate the same to all important public institutions and public bodies in the province.—United Press.

S. WAZIRISTAN QUIET. But Sniping Continues In Mami Rogha Area

SIMLA, June 4

Following the engagement of 2nd June resulting in five Indian other ranks killed, the Razmak Brigade remained in contact with the enemy lashkar near Mamirogha, says a press communique.

There was considerable sniping during the evening and at about 7 p.m. the enemy cut the water channel which was supplying water for the brigade.

On June 3 the third Infantry Brigade moved out from Razmak without opposition and two Brigades then cleared Mamirogha area and reestablished water supply.

No opposition was met but there was good deal of sniping.

In the evening the third Infantry Brigade withdrew to Razmak leaving the Razmak Brigade at Mamirogha. The night was quiet.

Our casualties during the day subject to the confirmation were two Indian other ranks wounded. It has now been ascertained that the enemy casualties on June 2 were at least 15 killed and seriously wounded not including slightly wounded. There are still some 300 hostile tribesmen in hills West of Mamirogha and larger lashkar in the neighbourhood of Datta Khel. The latter is believed to be spreading reports that the Faquir of Ipi is with a lashkar but this is not confirmed.

A Hindu named Devidas is reported to have been kidnapped near tank but it is not yet certain this was an act of a tribal gang.

South Waziristan is quiet.—A.P.

Puri Temple

CUTTACK, (By Mail). Public feeling in regard to better management of the Puri Jagannath temple funds and temple properties found expression in a non-official Bill which was sponsored during the last session of the Orissa Assembly.

The most important provision of this Bill related to the suggestion to vest the Management of the temple funds and properties to a committee of seven members including an Executive Officer who will be nominated by the Government.

This Bill was referred to a Select Committee, which in its turn decided to circulate it throughout India as it was felt that the people of other provinces were no less interested in the affairs of the temple of Jagannath than the people of this province.

Opinions received from all parts of the country are understood to be unanimous in support of the principle underlying the Bill.

It is understood that the Select Committee will meet soon to give finishing touches to the provisions embodied in the Bill.—United Press.

THE MATRICULATION PROBLEM

Of the 16596 candidates at the last Matriculation Examination of the Bombay University, excluding those that appeared at the Karachi and Hyderabad centres, approximately 8830 have passed, which works out at about 53 per cent. This is a comparatively good percentage, considering the frightfully bad results that we had during the last two years. The percentage in 1934 was 45, which was, we believe, near the normal figure for the University. But the percentage fell sharply to 29 in 1935 and 28 at the normal examination in April 1936. This gave rise to severe condemnation by the public all over the Presidency. Last year the percentage was 33.6, which was hardly a return to the normal. This year's results are obviously much better but by no means the best in India. To compare these with the percentage of passes in some other Universities in 1936, for which year alone we have got the necessary figures, the percentage for the Universities of Aligarh, Patna, Punjab, and Calcutta, was respectively 54, 57, 68, and 66, while the percentage for the whole of India was 55.57.

Vagaries Of Examinations

The vagaries of examinations are notorious. Some of their most erratic features have recently been revealed by an international body and have shaken men's faith in examinations. When we compare the results of any one University in different years or of different Universities in any one year, we cannot but feel that something is seriously wrong with our system of examinations. Many educationalists have seriously proposed to abolish public competitive examinations altogether. But they have not yet suggested a satisfactory substitute for them for the purpose of testing grades in progress. We cannot, therefore, expect any revolutionary changes in our University examinations in the near future. But appreciable improvement in the present system of examinations is both possible and necessary. It is doubtless a pretty hard task but not beyond the resourcefulness of our best educationalists. The most urgent improvement is to minimise the element of chance in the examination.

Unfair Restriction

The Matriculation Examination has suffered most from the element of chance because of the huge numbers of candidates appearing for it. In recent years it has also suffered from a subtle propaganda, calculated and designed to restrict the number of students in the Universities. Official and semi-official educationalists have persistently complained that our Universities are getting too over-crowded. The latest official Report on Education in India states: "The over-crowding of Universities and its undesirable effects have been discussed in previous reports. The urgency of the problem which has grown apace in recent years demands that action should no longer be delayed." The report naively adds: "There is no intention to deny to children facilities for education but such facilities should be adjusted to their aptitudes. For such pupils as have little or no bent for a literary form of education, other forms of training should be made available, otherwise the pupils will naturally be tempted to pursue a university course of study for which they may not be fitted." Evidently, the object is to reduce the number of the unemployed among the educated. Now, this would be a fair proposal if in place of Art Colleges technical schools and colleges were to be made available and if there were openings for the then trained in these institutions. But as a matter of fact technical institutions are not being started on anything like an adequate scale and even graduates turned out by these fail to get suitable employment. In these circumstances the right way to reduce the unemployment among the educated is to develop Indian commerce and industries and at the same time to start more technical schools and colleges and not artificially restrict the number of students in the Universities by suddenly making the Matriculation Examination harder. If it is desired to raise the Matriculation standard for cultural progress the right way to achieve that object is to improve the curricula, to train teachers better and also to pay them better. It is a crude and unfair way merely to pluck thousands of students in the name of efficiency without at the same time taking the trouble to increase the efficiency through better teaching.

Significant Signs

A report of trouble in Andalusia has been received in London from the Gibraltar correspondent of a Spanish agency. It is, of course, sensational enough, although the revolt has proved abortive. We have no doubt that it must have been put down with the combined ruthlessness of a Mussolini and a Franco, but speaks a great deal for the courage of those who were responsible for it. Why did they deliberately risk their lives knowing further that they would probably be subjected to untold horrors too? The answer is that, as the report says, the people and the army fear "that the Italians are getting into the saddle with a view to maintaining their position after the war" and that they argue now that even a Red Spain is better than an Italian Spain. Franco's rebellion was from the very beginning a rebellion against the common population of Spain. The Army officers and upper classes supported him because they believed that thereby they would be protecting their own special interests and privileges. They are now, discovering that actually enslaving themselves to the mastery of Italy and Signor Mussolini. It is for this Italian Spain that Mr. Neville Chamberlain has betrayed all international decency. And it is against the experience and knowledge of Franco's supporters themselves that he insists on believing the words of the Italian dictator. This is an international scandal of which honourable statesmanship ought to be thoroughly ashamed. Mr. Chamberlain, however, is proud of it and would do everything to help Italy annex Spain. We earnestly hope he fails ignominiously. One revolt has proved abortive. But the discontent is there. It is obviously both widespread and intense so much so that in one town at least thousands of anti-Franco leaflets have been distributed and inscriptions with the words "Long Live the Republic and Down with Fascism" have actually appeared on many buildings. These signs the significance of which cannot be underrated. If only the friendly betrayers of Republican Spain will allow her to hold on for another few months!

Joint Electorates

Sir Henry Gidney did well to emphasise the cause of joint electorates on the eve of his departure to England by the last mail-boat. It is a truism that the perpetuation of separate electorates would mean a direct negation of nationalism, and that is why the Congress has always stood for joint electorates, with a view to the sary for a temporary period. We are sorry to note, however, that Sir Henry seems to think that this is mainly a problem to be solved by the two major communities of India. While it may be so in a sense, the small minority communities in India would be rendering an inestimable service to the cause of communal

 (From Our London Correspondent)

Lord Willingdon, I learn, is to pay a visit to South America in August. He will be accompanied by Lady Willingdon and expects to visit Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay.

Lord Willingdon's Journey is under Mr. Philip Guedalla and the Indo-American Institute, and is indirectly sponsored by the British Council, the semi-official organisation which handles the cultural relations of Great Britain with foreign countries. He will, I understand, make speeches in various parts of the continent. As an ex-Governor-General of Canada, Lord Willingdon knows North America well. This will however, be his first visit to the south.

Civil Liberty Under British Government

A short while ago a certain bishop appeared before a court charged with having criticised the authorities in his preaching. After the charges were read, the accused was asked one or two questions, but was given no chance of defending himself.

The judge ordered him twelve months' residence in a small town, under police surveillance. He cannot leave that town, even to perform his episcopal duties, without the written permission of the Government.

And this did not happen in Germany but in Cyprus, and the Government responsible is the British Government.

The Linguaphone

A dinner held to celebrate the opening of the Linguaphone House was held by the Linguaphone Institute at the Dorchester Hotel, London.

Sir Denison Ross read telegrams of congratulation from Copenhagen, Helsingfors, New York, and Milan. He said that the Linguaphone system had provided a long felt want of language students. No one disputed that the best way of learning a foreign language was to be taught by a native of the country, but in default of that there was nothing better than learning from a linguaphone. Ninety-five per cent of the people in England learnt French from another Englishman and in consequence acquired an accent which was one of the joys of Continental people.

The essence of learning a language was to learn the accent correctly the first time; if it was learnt incorrectly at first it would always be pronounced incorrectly afterwards. Before the days of linguaphone records it was not possible to learn to speak Chinese without spending a long time in the School of Oriental Studies and learn Chinese correctly by means of the linguaphone.

Fifteen countries were represented at the dinner, but the institute produces records of 27 languages, including Chinese, Aramall, Japanese, Syrac, and Arabic.

Among those present were Professor Lloyd James, Professor Pastor, head of the Department of Spanish Studies, King's College, London, and M. Stefan, the teacher of French at the B.B.C.

Nothing would more forcibly prove the utter hollowness of the fear entertained by certain sections of the Muslims regarding joint electorates than such an orientation. INDO-BRITISH TEXTILE NEGOTIATIONS

The Indo-British Textile negotiations held at Simla in May last, have ended in a deadlock, and the Lancashire delegation has left our shores. I propose to examine herein the reasons for the failure in arriving at any settlement by the Lancashire Cotton Delegation with the Indian Delegation consisting of representatives of the Government and the other non-official advisers.

The genesis of the Indo-British Trade Agreement which is now in the melting pot, lies in the Ottawa Agreement which was concluded at Ottawa between India and the United Kingdom in 1932, which granted preference to U. K. goods in India, and which laid down a storm of protest all over the country. On the 30th March 1936, the India Legislative Assembly turned down by a resolution the Ottawa Agreement and its sequel the Indo-British Trade Agreement. Accordingly, the Government of India gave notice to His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom for the termination of Ottawa Agreement, in accordance with which the pact was due to expire on November 30, 1936. The Government of India announced that as a first step in the conduct of the Indo-British negotiations, preliminary proposals would be prepared both by the United Kingdom and India, and in the preparations of such preliminary proposals they associated with themselves a panel of non-official advisers, representatives of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture in India. The Government also announced that in view of the fact that negotiations were in progress for the conclusion of a trade agreement in replacement of that concluded at Ottawa in 1932, it had been agreed by the two Governments that the 1932 agreement should continue in force subject to termination by either side unless it was replaced by a new agreement. It was further agreed that in the event of a failure of conclusion of people in England learnt French from another Englishman and in consequence acquired an accent which was one of the joys of Continental people.

The essence of learning a language was to learn the accent correctly the first time; if it was learnt incorrectly at first it would always be pronounced incorrectly afterwards. Before the days of linguaphone records it was not possible to learn to speak Chinese without spending a long time in the School of Oriental Studies and learn Chinese correctly by means of the linguaphone.

LABOUR PARTY'S BLUNDER

Logically and in theory, the Labour Party of Great Britain may be right in rejecting a joint Popular Front consisting of communists to their left and Liberals to their right. For, they argue, that for the sake of a Socialist reconstruction they must work for an absolute socialist majority and that those who stand for peace and collective security as against the Chamberlain Government can easily support labour to achieve that object. But in practice and from the point of view of the realistic demands of the situation they have, we think, made a great mistake. The vital and immediate problem for Britain today is not so much to usher in an era of Socialism as to save the world from Mr. Chamberlain's realism. On this standard the Labour policy has failed. They divided the votes in Aylesbury instead of supporting a strong Liberal candidate. The Tory won the resolution passed by the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee warning the city landlords against a deliberate increase in rents is very opportune. Such increases are obviously meant to circumvent whatever recommendations might be made by the Rent Inquiry Committee, which is soon expected to begin

They will only serve to reveal the lengths to which the landlords are prepared to go in their process of exploiting the tenants. The rents in Bombay are already notoriously high and to increase them still higher at this juncture is wellnigh wanton. No better justification could have been found for a rent restriction law than the present mischievous enhancement!

Preposterous Demands

The Lancashire delegation, it is understood, pressed for a quota of piecegoods from Lancashire in the Indian market of the order of 666,000 yards, accompanied by a Tariff reduction of 9 per cent, thus making the import duty only 11 per cent, with a view to achieve that quantum. A glance at the import of piecegoods from U. K. to India during the last three years shows that there is a progressively decreasing off-take of U. K. piecegoods in

Government Delegates' Duty

By M. P. GANDHI

The Indian markets owing to the increase and diversification of the manufacture of Indian Textiles. In spite of this clearly declining trade of Lancashire in the Indian market, Lancashire has made such a preposterous demand with a view to find an outlet for its goods in the Indian market. The Indian non-official advisers could not naturally acquiesce with such a demand bearing in mind, the interest not only of the Cotton Mill Industry but also of the hand looms, the production of which is receiving impetus at the hands of the various Provincial Governments in India. What is more, the feeling that even if such a quota was agreed to, Lancashire would not be able to fulfil it, prompted the Lancashire delegation to ask for a reduction in the duty on U. K. piecegoods from 20 per cent, to as low as 11 per cent, which is an absolutely untenable proposition, as even the Tariff Board of 1935 recommended that the existing duties of U. K. piecegoods should not be disturbed. In the face of such an abnormally high demand how could the Indian advisers with the best of will for arriving at an agreement comply with Lancashire's wishes particularly, as they had also to discharge an equally onerous and responsible duty to safeguard the position of the Indian industry. The Indian non-official advisers deserve to be congratulated on the bold stand they have taken in this behalf.

Indian Cotton In U. K.

In regard to the consumption of Indian cotton in the U.K. the Lancashire delegation offered to take 400,000 bales with a pledge to work for a higher figure over the period of any agreement. India exported 456,142 bales of raw cotton to U. K. in 1935-36, 622,423 bales in 1936-37, and 395,102 bales in 1937-38.

It is understood that the Indian delegation offered to agree to a maximum import of 400,000 yards of Lancashire piecegoods.

B. B. & C. I. Railways' General Stores Dadar

To The Editor of "The Chronicle." Sir,—Many people are under the impression that the B. B. & C. I. Railways' cloth and general stores—as apart from the Grain Depot—at Dadar is managed by the Railway Company for the benefit of the poor staff, as capital for the management of grain depot is raised by way of shares sold to the Railway employees but it is understood that it is managed by a private person. If I am not mistaken, the Railway Company cannot allow such profiteering business under the existing Co-operative Act. The commodities sold there are in no case cheaper than the Bazar rates but on the other hand are dearer in many cases.

Will the Registrar Co-operative Societies Bombay Presidency and the Agent B. B. & C. I. Railway kindly have the matter enquired into?—Yours, etc.

WITHOUT COMMENT—

According to a Gibraltar report of an abortive revolt in Franco's army, "a number of General Delano's Spanish officers 'fearing that the Italians are getting into the saddle with a view to maintaining their position after the war,' recently held a number of secret meetings at which it was argued that even a Red Spain was better than an Italian Spain."

Two "European Representatives" of the Cawnpore employers are in Simla trying to convince the 'Government of India' that the strike is being financed from abroad.

The proof, of course, is under their two hats and may, or may not be produced.

But in the meantime let it be publicly and loudly proclaimed that the two European representatives do not represent in any shape or form the suggestion that Cawnpore Capitalism has ever been financed from abroad.

The Cawnpore Employers urge upon the U. P. Government not to "allow their judgment to be influenced by unfair tactics of those, who have shown themselves incapable of taking a calm and dispassionate view of the situation, which is fraught with dire consequences to a major industry of the Province."

No, they ought to be influenced by the blond, we mean, fair tactics of those who have shown themselves quite capable of taking a cool and calculated view of the situation which, therefore, is, we agree, "fraught with dire consequences to a major industry of the Province."

The dispute between Tatas and their workers at Jamshedpur has been settled to the satisfaction of the latter, says a Patna message.

This tragedy to Capitalism has occurred because Mr. Dalal, being neither Sir Jwala Prasad Srivastava, nor even a "European" representative, had evidently no eyes to see the Red Gold Monster behind the workers.

"LEAGUE LEADERS IN BOMBAY" Reported a Saturday's headline, "ALL CLEAR" should announce to-day's.

Asked his impression of the situation, the Junior Colleague said: "Nashistand khurdu-o-bar-khastand."

"In between," continued the J.C., "they did a bit of speaking and finally—at this stage this domestic interview was interrupted by some abrupt arrivals."

Speaking at the Muslim League public meeting, Mr. Abdur Rahman Siddiqi declared that if India was free, she could help the world's Muslim nations which were hedged in by British Imperialism.

Wonder why there were no cries from the Knights and Would-be's on the platform of "Irrelevant," "Shut up," "Sit down," etc.

Or Perhaps—the assembled lions-cum-tigers roared but non-vocally, as Mr. Fazlul Huq might say.

We believe they did

Mr. Aurangzeb Khan (a Frontier Lion) spoke at length on his economic interpretation of the failure of the Muslim League and success of the Congress in the Frontier.

Unfortunately, he had no time to explain why and when he joined the Muslim League and what he was doing up to now.

By the way, we want to know why Maulana Zafar Ali Khan was conspicuous by his absence.

But sorry, we forget. The Maulana does not participate in June 4 celebrations.

Anglo-India considers the rumour about the proposed sale and purchase of aero-engines between Italy and Britain as improbable. That is because admirers of Mr. Neville Chamberlain only believe—and then bless—him when he has achieved the improbable.

The Spanish Government has asked for a Franco-British mission to visit places, subjected to Franco's aerial and say if they found any military objectives. Mr. Chamberlain will, of course, summarily reject the invitation as a sinister attempt to hinder the advancement of Britain.

Sind Canal Threatens Inundation

MAIN REGULATOR GIVES WAY

Premier Hurries Up To Scene Of Trouble: Extensive Damage Feared

KARACHI, June 5. The main regulator of the Sind Canal, which takes off from the Indus, twenty miles from Sukkur, gave way last night flooding the neighbouring areas.

Extensive Damage Feared

The extent of the damage so far is not known, but it is feared that extensive damage has been done. Water is discharged in the canal from the river, which is running very high at present and, as it is the beginning of the inundation season, if means are not found to divert the water into the Indus some distance down the river, extensive flooding could not be avoided.

Premier For Scene

The Superintendent Engineer has already left for the scene, while the Premier and the Chief Engineer are leaving for Sukkur tonight.

It will be recalled that floods occurred in the Sind Canal on two previous occasions.

The P.W.D. Minister is staying at Karachi to keep in touch with Government headquarters.—A.P.

Jinnah's Letter To Congress President

gue on Sunday, the following official statement was issued:—

The meetings of the Council of the All-India Muslim League which commenced here yesterday concluded at 5 p.m. to-day after discussing ways and means of widening the scope of the League particularly in rural areas and considering reorganisation schemes to achieve this object. All members of the Council are leaving for their respective stations either to-night or to-morrow.

Mr. Fazlul Huq, Premier of Bengal, is leaving for Calcutta tonight while Sir Sikandar Hyat, Premier of the Punjab, and party are leaving for Simla to-morrow.

The Council is understood to have approved of the draft of the letter to be sent to the Congress President. It is further understood that the letter is a short one which is couched in very conciliatory language expressing the "ardent desire" for a settlement of the Hindu-Muslim question. The letter emphasises that in order to enable further negotiations it will be necessary for the Congress to recognise the All-India representative character of the Muslim League which should be treated as the only representative body which could speak with authority on behalf of the Muslims.

The next from the Congress side is keenly awaited in Muslim League circle.

The Council passed the following resolution: "In view of the Jinnah-Sikandar Hyat agreement the Punjab Parliamentary Board be dissolved and a new board be hereby formed consisting of all members of the Punjab Muslim League Organising Committee appointed by Mr. Jinnah according to the resolution of the All-India Muslim League with powers to co-opt. The following persons have been co-opted for the Central Board Mr. Aurangzeb Khan, Mr. Sadullah Khan and Major Sardar Mahomed Nawaz Khan of Kot Fatah Khan."

MADRAS TELEGRAM TO MR. JINNAH

MADRAS June 4. Mr. Abdul Hamid Khan and Mr. B. Pocker, Secretaries of the Madras Presidency Muslim League, have sent the following telegram to Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the Muslim League, on the eve of the League Council meeting: "Regret inability to attend Board meeting. Wish every success in your endeavours to find a solution to the Hindu-Muslim problem, for protecting the community's rights and for establishing peace and unity for the sake of the freedom of India."—United Press.

AIR ATTACKS ON CIVILIANS TO BE VERIFIED

LONDON, June 4. The Spanish Embassy has announced that a Joint Note has been despatched to the British and French Embassies at Barcelona, inviting the British and French Military Air Attaches, to visit the places where the civilian population was recently subjected to air attacks, in order to personally verify the absence of Military objectives and issue a report to that effect.—Reuter.

INDO BRITISH TEXTILE NEGOTIATIONS

(Continued from Page 6) accompanied by a reduction of tariff from 20 per cent. to 15 per cent. in return for a guaranteed off-take of Indian raw cotton of 650,000 bales. Lancashire, however, refused to agree to take this quantity of cotton which was very reasonable in consideration of the concession offered in respect of a large increase in the off-take of her piecegoods, and which again is almost equal to her off-take of cotton in 1936-37. Due to such attitude on the part of the Lancashire Delegation, the present Indo-British negotiations failed. Both the delegations have reluctantly agreed that the present method of approach to the problems by talks between the parties could not help at the present stage. Sir Zafrullah Khan, the Official Delegate of the Government of India has, therefore, proceeded to London for continuing conversations with His Majesty's Government.

Cause Of Break-down

Let us now examine the principal reason why the India talks resulted in a failure:

1. Lancashire pitched its demand both in respect of the quantity of piecegoods and the reduction of import duty, too high and showed a desire to capture the Indian market at the expense of the Indian Industry, without offering suitable relief to the Indian Cotton Cultivators by agreeing to take a larger quantity of raw cotton. Incidentally, I may state that it is not very probable that the Indian cultivator of Deshi cotton will profit by such purchase of raw cotton by U. K. These purchases will be of long staple cotton which India itself will require in large quantities for her increasing production of finer goods.

These demands of Lancashire must have been pitched high relying on:

- (a) an attitude of compromise on the part of Indian advisers,
- (b) superior strength of His Majesty's Government in foisting an agreement ultimately on India in accordance with Lancashire's wishes in the event of no agreement being reached.
- (c) the continuance of the present profitable agreement which is assured till such a time as a fresh agreement is concluded although two years have passed since the date of the notice for the termination of the Ottawa Agreement.

The Indian non-official advisers had a very heavy responsibility on their shoulders and would not have dared to risk the failure of an agreement if Lancashire's proposals were reasonable, as after all, they must not have been unaware of the weakness of their position vis-à-vis His Majesty's Government. The fact that they still allowed the conversation to end in a deadlock, only emphasises the utter unreasonableness of Lancashire's proposals, and indicates their difficulty in agreeing to them out of regard for Indian interests which they were called upon to safeguard. The spirit of 'give and take' usually necessary in such negotiations, was conspicuous by its absence, in the case of Lancashire, which wanted to take everything and give nothing. The utterance of the President of the Board of Trade, on learning the news of the failure of these negotiations, assumes an air of injured innocence when he says that it is impossible to conclude a trade agreement with India unless than can get fair treatment for British cotton goods in India.

Future Negotiations

In the negotiations to be carried on in future in London, we hope that the Official Delegate of the Government of India will not go beyond the advice of its non-official advisers who have been associated with the present negotiations for a year and a half and who are competent to interpret correctly the mind of India, in connection with the terms to be

America 'Sends Reminders To 13 Nations'

WASHINGTON, June 4. The United States have despatched notes to 13 nations reminding them of another war-debt instalment due on June 15 when a total of 1891 million dollars is due.

Ethiopia has already informed the State Department that she is unable to pay. Similar replies are expected from other countries concerned.—Reuter.

WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

Will It Contribute To Peace?

DURHAM (North Carolina) June 4.

The suggestion that a world economic conference should be called "in which nations would co-operate for the equitable distribution of the basic raw materials of the world" was made by Mr. Daniel Roper, Secretary to Commerce, in an address here. He added that such a conference would "serve to arrest the fear of economic insecurity and contribute to peace and happiness of all."—Reuter.

Industrial Advisers For Air Ministry

LONDON, June 4. Sir Kingsley Wood has decided to establish a panel of industrial advisers to the Air Ministry.

The following have accepted the invitation to serve in this capacity Sir Amos Ayre, Mr. S. R. Beale, Mr. J. W. Bomen, Sir Charles Bruce Gardner, Lord Cadman and Sir Malcolm McAlpine.—Reuter.

offered for arriving at a suitable agreement with U. K. It would also be helpful if now the Government of India give the requisite three months' notice of the termination of the present Agreement, as in that case Lancashire will appreciate the necessity of putting forward reasonable proposals which would be equitable to India as well. Until such notice is given, there is little chance of Lancashire seeing reason, and of any agreement being arrived at which would adequately safeguard Indian interests.

What is more, the time has now come when India should give her attention to the necessity of concluding bilateral trade agreements with its various customers. For instance, I would suggest that there is a very strong case for Indian textiles receiving increased preferences from East Africa, whose best customer for raw cotton is India. The import of East African cotton in India in 1937 was 291,000 bales, whereas the export of piecegoods to East Africa in the year 1937 was only 13,260,000 yards as compared with the import of only 31,000 bales of East African Cotton by U. K. and an export of 7,367,000 yards of piecegoods from U. K. to East Africa.

The Indian Commercial Community and the public owe a debt of gratitude to Sir Zafrullah Khan, India's Official Delegate as well as the Indian non-official advisers generally, and Sir Purnohandas Thakurdas, the Chairman of the non-official delegation which conducted the present negotiations as well as Mr. G. D. Birla and Mr. Kasturbhai Lalbhai, particularly for the very able stand they have taken and the courage they have displayed in adhering to their own terms and in rejecting the preposterous proposals of the Lancashire delegation.

I fervently hope that the recommendations of the non-official advisers will be upheld by the Government of India, and that efforts will be made for the conclusion of only such an agreement as will fully safeguard and satisfy Indian interests. I also trust that the Government will evince no anxiety for concluding any agreement until its terms have met with the approval of the Indian Legislatures.

WRECKING THE AWARD. The Muslims desired that the Award should stand until it could be replaced by a better alternative. But the Mass Contact programme, in the name of nationalism, was calculated to wreck the Communal Award. He realised that every one had a right to contest the elections. The Muslims wanted that they should be represented by men in whom they had confidence.

In Bombay, the Congress Government made provision for an "option" clause much against the wishes of the Muslim representatives in the legislature. The purpose of that provision was to seek to create a split in the ranks of the Muslims.

ZOOM' IN U.P. & C.P. In Bihar, the United Provinces and the Central Provinces, Mr. Jinnah went, they all knew what kind of "zoom" was being carried on against the Muslims. He did not say that "Gondalism" should be allowed a free play, but he would say that the same Congress which had for nearly 50 years fought for civil liberty, was now seeking to suppress it, simply because it had an opportunity to govern.

One instance was the recent legislation passed in Bombay, empowering the Commissioner of Police to deport persons out of Bombay. He was not defending anybody. If any one had committed an offence, he was for hauling that individual before a Court of Law, where he would stand his trial. For 50 years the Congress had fought against the rule by the Executive, and now the same Congress was resorting to that Executive rule. Mr. Jinnah also mentioned the action taken by Bombay Government against the newspaper "Al-Hilal." Mr. Jinnah, continuing, said that their confidence in the Congress was shaken.

Before closing his speech, Mr. Jinnah addressed the meeting in English and said that especially in view of the reports he had seen in some newspapers in the morning that he wanted the Press to tell the public that they should not rely upon parbled versions, half-truths, perversions and imaginations of those journalists who were bent upon making mischief.

SETTLEMENT BETWEEN EQUALS.

As far as he and the Muslims were concerned he would do his utmost personally and influence them in their efforts to secure an honourable settlement. But it must be a settlement between two equals. The Muslims would not submit to any proposition which would mean a transfer of slavery from British rule to any other rule in this country. He was sure and the Muslims in India would agree with him that they desired nothing more than "live and let live."

The Quran, their precious heritage, contained a political code also besides other codes, and that code had for its basis, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity. He believed in that code, and, therefore, he wanted liberty, equality and fraternity for one and all without any discrimination.

RAISON D'ETRE OF UNITED FRONT.

Having these principles in mind, no one was more anxious than himself for a Hindu-Muslim settlement. He believed the salvation of this country lay in reaching a settlement and because he loved his country with all his heart and soul, he had stood as a true and loyal servant of India. He desired India to be free, he desired India to be independent, and he desired to see India occupying her due place among the rest of the nations of the world. This they could achieve by a United Front, and because he felt like this, he was anxious that there should be a settlement between them and the Hindus.

Sir Sikandar Hyat Khan, Premier, Punjab, said that they wanted to live in harmony, but it must be based on an honourable settlement. If the businessmen in the Punjab were allowed to import Egyptian cotton, without any restrictions, then that meant "nationalism". But if he made an attempt to have some sort of excise duty to save the poor cotton growers from ruin, then it meant "communalism" and "Provincialism". They were up against this type of "nationalism". He would ask the Congress not to stand on prestige for the sake of the greater cause of unity, and for the sake of the greater prestige of the whole country.

Maulvi Fazlul Huq, Premier, Bengal, regretted he had come to Bombay at a time when he was

Vala State Affairs Come To Head

Sardar Patel Supports Move To Launch Satyagraha

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT). BHAVNAGAR, (By Mail).

Affairs in Vala State in Kathiawar, seem to have come to a head and the decision of the workers of the State to launch on direct action, our Correspondent says, has now received the approval of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel who is fully kept informed of the situation there. It is also possible that the Kathiawar Political Conference might make the Vala issue an All-Kathiawar issue.

The Bhavnagar labour conference which was to be held on the 8th inst. has been postponed till the second or third week of this month. This is the first effort of the local Youth League to organize all branches of labour and unite them all. Syt. Gulzarilal Nanda, Parliamentary Secretary Premier Kher, has, it is understood, consented to preside over the conference.

TRAMWAY RATES.

The distance between Bhavnagar and Talaja is 32 miles, and formerly the tramway rate was thirteen annas. Formerly the mileage in this tramway was four pies and a half, while through-out the Bhavnagar State Railway average mileage is three pies and a half. Recently the tramway fare has been increased from thirteen annas to one rupee and one anna compared to railway there are no adequate facilities. This enhancement in the tramway rates has created a sense of indignation amongst the tramway travellers who are mainly villagers.

SATYAGRAHA IN VALA.

Vala which is a small third class State has been in the prominent news in vernacular papers. After promulgation of prohibition orders about meetings and circulation of leaflets, a meeting of several prominent workers was held in Vala to consider possibility of resorting to direct action. It was decided to offer Satyagraha and defy State orders. I learn from reliable sources that a prominent worker or the Youth League saw Sardar Patel in Ahmedabad, and he was fully informed of the situation in Vala, and he has approved of

FIGHT AGAINST MONOPOLY.

The Rajkot Anti-Monopoly Committee, who waged a successful struggle against sugar monopoly, has started a campaign against match monopoly. The Committee held several meetings in different wards to explain its object. The burden of monopoly of articles of daily consumption fell heavily on the poorer classes. Monopoly system prevails in many big and small States of Kathiawar, in very ugly form.

SCHOOL ON WARDHA LINES.

Syt. Nanabhai a member of the Primary Education Curriculum Committee appointed by Bombay Government, is starting a village reconstruction centre with a school on the Wardha Education Scheme basis in Anbha in Bhavnagar State. Invitation has been extended to Darbar Gopaldas to open this centre.

HARIJAN STUDENTS IN COMMON SCHOOLS

(From A Correspondent).

NARSANDA, (By Mail). The Borsad Taluka Harijan Savek Sangh has started a campaign for the admission of Harijan students in the Local Board schools of the taluka.

Mr. Chimanlal C. Narkhl, and Mr. Bhalilbhai U. Vaghela, M.L.A. have accepted an invitation from the taluka Harijan Savek Sangh to tour the taluka. During the tour they will visit Borsad, Bodal, Ambav and some other villages, and see, if the Harijan students, so far admitted in those village schools have to undergo any difficulties.

then their view point that they have been trying to make out and urge. I therefore, beg to request you to kindly insert the following correct sentence:—"In fact, this writer knows full well and can vouch for the fact that the President of the 'Bombay Tenants' Association' has let no opportunity to pass, whenever it presented itself, in making it clear in so many words and on so many occasions too, that one thing that differentiates and distinguishes this Association and its activities from some of the others in the field for social work, benefit and amelioration is that we do not stand for or subscribe to the theory, as such, of expropriation without compensation."

While the first word in italics corrects a simple mistake, the mischief sought to be rectified lies in the second word in italic, which, if left alone, is likely to create an impression which was not the one in view. Hence, I request and hope you will kindly publish this and oblige.—Yours, etc., whom they explained their project acted as their intermediary with Stalin. Thanks to him the three airmen were in due course summoned to the Kremlin.

There they were taken to Stalin's office. He was seated behind a long table. With him were Molotov, the nominal Premier, Yezhov, Commissar for Home Affairs, and Marshal Voroshiloff.

The three airmen were given chairs on the side of the table. From the expression of the Commissioners, though not from Stalin's, they received the impression that their plan would go through. Stalin did the talking. But the Marshal intervened when Stalin asked which of the airmen was to be spokesman. He explained that they did not agree as to the plan.

"Aha!" said Stalin. "Factions, eh?" He looked at us attentively. Then, "Well, let's hear from you, Comrade Chlakov."

Finally, after a three hours' interview, during which air experts were summoned, Stalin turned to the commissioners and said, "Shall we write our decisions?" According to Molotov began to write. His official authorization of the flight was dictated by Stalin.

He appealed to businessmen to do their best to improve the economic condition of the Muslim masses.

Results Of Karachi & Hyderabad Centres On June 14

BOMBAY, Monday.

The Matriculation results of the University of Bombay for April 1938 have been declared this morning.

The results of the candidates who appeared for the examination at the Karachi and Hyderabad centres in April 1938 will be declared on June 14, 1938.

The awards of Scholarships, Prizes and Medals will be announced on the same date.

RESULTS OF 6 CANDIDATES RESERVED

The results of the following candidates are reserved:—

THE KHALSA COLLEGE, ECMBAY

The Khalsa College, near Kings Circle, Matunga, was established in
June 1937 by the Sarab Hind Sikh Mission, and though financed entirely by Sikhs, the College is absolutely cosmopolitan.
Incidentally this Sikh
Mission of the Akali party has enormous resources.
The annual income from its properties being over 12 lakhs.

During the past year the College has shown excellent progress. The first Annual Athletic Sports
were held in December,
when the Hon. Dr. M. D.
D. Gilder, Minister of Health & Excise presided and Mrs. Gilder distributed the prizes. The College Magazine has attained
a very high standard,
bearing favourable comparison with other College Magazines, and the two numbers published so far have received commendable press notices.

From this June, when the College re-opens, classes upto the B. A. degree course will be held in all subjects with Honours
Courses in English,
French, Persian, Sanskrit,
Marathi, Gujarati and Economics.

The College scored a brilliant result in the last Intermediate Science Examination, securing a 72 per cent. result, which is highest of all Colleges in the University.

Besides Scholarships
granted on merits, Rs.
5,000/- per annum is given as help to needy, deserving students of all castes and creeds.

The College Building, is a magnificent structure, a real landmark in its locality—it has secured huge play grounds, nearly 50,000 sq. yds. and in that respect can offer unequalled facilities. A Swimming Pool is to be constructed this year.

The staff is very competent and cosmopolitan,
with a well-known educa-
tionist of long experience,
Sardar Kashmira Singh
as the Principal. The College fulfils a long-wanted need for the residents of Dadar and the suburbs, and is expected to render distinct services in the cause of education in Bombay.

HOW FEVER POISONS YOUR BODY

That cold shivery feeling one minute that turns to a stifling oppression the next that splitting pain over the eyes and your rising and falling temperature, are due to poison. This poison, (produced by the fever), attacks your nerve and muscle tissues, leaving you weak and exhausted. Ordinary food nauseates you, yet these wasted tissues must be rebuilt. Horlicks, doctors say, is nourishment which your weakened stomach can tolerate. What's more, it is 100% nourishment, pouring quick new strength and vitality into your exhausted body. Buy Horlicks today—available everywhere.

DON'T BE A WRECK HEALTH MEANS HAPPINESS ACCEPT THIS GIFT OF HEALTH.

If you are unfit and a wreck, you can't hide it from others. Men can "weigh you up." A woman knows by instinct if a man is a wreck, and lacking in that vital strength, which means manhood. She may marry a sickly and weakly man out of sympathy or pity, but she will not love him as she does a real man.

Now, you don't need to live the rest of your life as a wreck. Science has concentrated the essential Vitamins into Vitophenes, the latest Vitamin tonic tablets, to produce natural powers within you, to rebuild yourself as a man, with all manhood's strength and powers. With a fortnight's regular aid of Vitophenes, you will say "Good bye" to weakness and all allied ailments.

Thousands of Wrecks have been changed into real men by nature's gift of health—"Vitophenes" which develops the Nerves, builds the body, increases energy and vitality, restores manly strength, great power and endurance. A bottle of 30 red tablets of Vitophenes costs only Re. 1.12, from all Chemists of your town, or direct from P. O. 88 Karachi.

Foreign Buying Contributes Cheerful Trend In N. Y. Cotton Market

TECHNICAL POSITION FIRMER
Pre-Holiday Covering In Liverpool

The New York cotton market was the bright spot of Friday's American markets, with the better tone of Bombay cables and foreign buying contributing to the cheerful trend.

The technical position appears to be firmer with traders anticipating less foreign selling pressure over the White-Holiday.

The market opened steady but was inactive with a decline of 2 points with July 8.00 being the lowest level. Later on there was active buying and prices advanced to 8.05 which was the highest level. The market closed at a net rise of 19 to 17 points. Spot cotton prices advanced 19 points at 8.03c.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET
The New Orleans cotton futures market was steady and closed at a rise of 15 to 17 points. Spot cotton prices advanced 17 points at 8.19c per lb.

LIVERPOOL MARKET
The Liverpool cotton futures market opened at a decline of 2 points with July 4.25. There was hedging and transferring of hedges from nears to distant positions, otherwise the market was quiet. There was some pre-holiday short covering and trade calling which found contracts scarce. The market closed at a rise of 6 to 5 points. Midling American spot cotton prices advanced one point at 4.00c.

EGYPTIAN COTTON
Egyptian cotton futures market was fairly steady. Both Giza and Uppers futures closed at a rise of 9 points. The Alexandria market was quiet and closed at a rise of 9 points to a decline of one point.

CONSUMPTION PROSPECTS
Continued selling from Bombay, and hedging of South American has found a limited offtake and prices show a further decline on the week. Support has been discouraged by more favourable Southern weather reports, and an absence of any definite improvement in trade demand. Weaker rupee exchange rate has also influenced a good deal of liquidation by holders of the Liverpool Bombay straddle, while bulls have been discouraged by the further weakness in Wall Street and disappointment over the Budget.

ECONOMIC PLAN
Market is now not impressed by the new American financial and economic plan, and deplorable world spinners' takings, continue week by week. This season's total to date is 1,800,000 bales less than at the same time last year with over three months to go. It now looks as if the total world consumption for this season will be short of 11,000,000 bales.

The new crop acreage is about 29,000,000 acres which on a five-year average yield will produce a crop about 12,500,000 bales.

In Egyptian hedging of Sudan continues, but has been smaller than of late, as cotton in the auction has been with drawn on account of low bids. Some improvement has been noticed in trade demand both for Uppers and Gira which has absorbed offerings. The local house continues to sell Uppers against American. Forecasts from Alexandria report a small reduction in the new crop acreage; and while the crop is late the start is considered satisfactory. "M. G."

BOMBAY COTTON

Bombay, June 4.
Following a rise of 19 points in New York cotton futures the local market opened to-day at Rs. 145/4 for Broach J/A. delivery and after declining to Rs. 144/12 prices advanced to Rs. 147 on active buying and covering influenced by bullish Memphis advices which state that the recovery programme is passed and that there was rain over the Eastern Belt which was considered unfavourable. The tone of the market was firm.

It appears that we are having a technical recovery owing to liquidated position of the market and there being few sellers, prices are improving. But we do not look for any material rise as June is always a flattening month. Liverpool market was closed to-day and the local market remained fairly steady and finally closed at 5 p.m. as under:

MINISTER PATIL'S ADVICE TO LOCAL BODIES

Provincial Conference Plea For Abolition Of P. W. D Divisions

"Do not hide facts, where there is a miscarriage of justice, corruption, or favouritism, as there will not be progress otherwise. If you complain that the officials mislead people or create dissensions, the Congress Ministry has made it plain that they as well as public officials are by servants of the people in the true sense of the term, though it may take some time for the officials to adjust themselves to new conditions as they have been trained in bureaucratic ways," said Hon. Mr. L. M. Patil, Minister for Local Self-Government, concluding the proceedings of the Provincial Local Bodies Conference, which met at the Corporation Hall, on Sunday.

ADVICE TO LOCAL BODIES

Continuing his said, the Government had to cut grants in regard to Local Bodies in the last budget since they (Local Bodies) had not fully realised their responsibility. It should be realised that the Local Bodies are not for self-aggrandisement but only for public service. There was no use of having dummy bodies. There were several Local Bodies, which had their dues in arrears. They must collect their dues and utilise them properly. There should be no favouritism or partisanship while fulfilling their duties. He wanted to point out that Government won't shirk their duty or lag behind should Local Bodies show their honesty and sincerity in the fulfilment of their duties.

FORGE AHEAD

Local bodies should not be satisfied with the ordinary humdrum duties of water-supply and laying of streets. Local Bodies should have own water-works and such other services of public utility as they were profitable enterprises. By giving more amenities, they could have more taxes. Besides, as elsewhere, Local Bodies should take to the solving of more arduous problems like housing, town-planning, and industrial-planning.

A USEFUL LINK

Mr. S. S. Naik thanked Minister Patil, who had so patiently heard the frank speeches and criticisms by delegates with an equanimity of temper. The Minister's interest was how best to serve them.

He thanked the delegates, who had come from far and near for the Conference. In conclusion he said that Local Self-Government was but a link between them and the Government. He hoped they would make the best use of it and give it their support.

VILLAGE PANCHAYATS BILL. Earlier, the Conference passed including the question of cadre. (5) Improvement of the financial resource of Local Bodies. (6) Amendment of all Local Self-Government Acts so as to democratise them and to conform to modern needs.

ABOLISH P. W. D. DIVISIONS.

The dual system of P. W. D. and District Local Board carrying out separate administration of ordinary public works in any district causes a lot of unnecessary expenditure and consequent waste to the tax-payers.

This Conference therefore urges on the Government to abolish the ordinary P. W. D. Divisions and to hand over the works to those District Local Boards who have got and maintained a properly trained and approved engineers of the engineer cadre. The cost of maintenance and supervision should be borne by the Government as at present. The Minister of Local Self-Government be requested to make the necessary amendment of the Municipal Act.

PUBLIC UTILITY SERVICES.

As with the advent of Provincial Autonomy in this country it is incumbent that nation-building work should be undertaken for the benefit of the masses to make them economically, industrially, intellectually and socially fit, and where the Provincial Governments may be unable to shoulder this burden and discharge their responsibilities efficiently, this Conference resolves that the Municipal Act may be so amended as to make it elastic, so that any Municipality can undertake any trading enterprises viz. gas works, electricity works, transport, mortgage and rent charges, banks, municipal savings banks, insurance schemes, market halls, bathing establishments, milk dairies, inns and restaurants, works, bakeries, mills, ferries, fishery, enterprises, poultry, etc.

ENFORCING EXERCISE OF FRANCHISE.

Resolved that it is the opinion of this Conference that in view of the fact that the franchise has been extended almost to the point of adult franchise, and that heavy expenditure has to be incurred in the preparation of the electoral roll, it should be made incumbent on every person, whose name has been entered in the electoral roll, to exercise his or her franchise or failure to do so, without appropriate cause, should be deemed to have committed breach of municipal law rendering himself or herself liable for punishment by a fine upto five rupees. The Minister of Local Self-Government be requested to take up the necessary amendment of the Municipal Act.

PRIMARY EDUCATION.

This Conference gives due credit and appreciates the intention of Government in the adoption of centralisation measures in the Primary Education Act. This Conference, however, regrets that Government have taken such a drastic and undemocratic step and points out that the uniform 'ex-parte' condemnation of Local

Futility Of Nizam's Boast

Mr. Gadgil On Humiliating Pan On Latur Conference

POONA, June 4.

"I congratulate the organisers of the Conference for refusing to obey humiliating conditions and for choosing the only self-respecting course of abandoning the Conference," says Mr. N. V. Gadgil, M.L.A. and Secretary of the Central Legislative Assembly Congress Party, in the course of a statement on the Latur Conference incident.

He adds: "This will bring before the public the complete absence of civil liberties in Hyderabad, as recently referred to by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru."

"The organisers of the Conference were acting legitimately and constitutionally, and it is thousands and thousands of the Nizam's subjects who should have interfered with the free and constitutional expression of public aspirations. This also proves the futility of the Nizam's boast that his subjects enjoy freedom of speech."

Concluding Mr. Gadgil exhorts the Hindu-Muslim subjects of the Nizam to pursue the matter which will win freedom for the masses, and trusts that they will start with the moral sympathy and support of the freedom-loving citizens of British India."—United Press.

LITERACY FOR INDUSTRIAL WORKERS

MADRAS (By Mail). With a view to promoting literacy among industrial workers, the Government of Madras, it is gathered have for some time past been trying to evolve a suitable scheme.

In this connection they have under consideration a suggestion that in the case of workers in large factories attendance at school be made a condition for employment and the cost in this connection be borne by the factory owners. They should make provision, at their own cost, for imparting to "half-timers" (employees aged between 12 and 15) education, and also taking the responsibility of ensuring literacy among all their illiterate employees in the course of five years.

Questions relating to the time for attendance at school and the possibility of having it during working hours without reduction of wages, and other kindred matters are also being closely examined.

The suggestion has been circulated to commercial and industrial organisations for eliciting their views.—United Press.

MUSLIM LEAGUE FLAG HOISTED

It is Symbol Of Community's Solidarity Says Fazlul Huq

BOMBAY, June 5.

An appeal to the Muslims to stand united and organise themselves under the banner of the Muslim League was made by Mr. A. K. Fazlul Huq, the premier of Bengal, speaking at the Muslim League Flag hoisting ceremony this morning at "C" Ward.

Mr. Fazlul Huq was taken in procession, Mr. M. A. Jinnah and Mr. Zafarali Khan also attended the ceremony.

Mr. Fazlul Huq added that the League Flag was the symbol of the solidarity of the Muslims. He was now in public life for over 40 years and had never in the past witnessed such enthusiasm and awakening amongst the Muslims as it was to-day. He urged the Muslims to utilise the opportunity by organising themselves. And as for the majority community, he maintained, the more they tried to oppress the Muslims, the more would the Muslims gain in strength.

Islam, he said, was a glorious religion. It knew no class distinctions.

"The sun never sets over the Islamic world," he concluded. Syed Abdul Rauf Shah, M.L.A. (Central Provinces) charged the Congress with adopting a policy calculated to weed out the Muslims from all responsible positions. Mr. Zafarali Khan also spoke.

AN ANOMALY

There is no doubt that these rulers of the States, who occupy an anomalous position, combine in themselves both the roles of slave and sovereign.

The present attitude of the Congress is inexplicable. At Haripura, the Congress expressed sympathy for Indians abroad and promised active support and encouragement to Indian settlers in Zanzibar, and there are at least half a dozen resolutions to that effect to Tanganyika, Mauritius, Kenya, etc. and in all parts of the world. It launched a countrywide boycott to remove inequality and injustice to Indian traders in Zanzibar and succeeded to some extent. Nay, similar sympathy is shown to the humanity all over the world—providing an ambulance for China, and relief for Spain; but the attitude at once becomes rather cold and less enthusiastic, when the question of Indian States people crops up. There is a halting policy of hesitancy and half-hearted measures as if Congress was afraid to provoke conflict with these petty States. It is the present policy that is largely responsible for re-

Sikar People Groaning Under Repression

Duty Of Congress To Stand By Them In Hour Of Need

Nariman Exhorts Sikarites To Follow Mysoreans' Example & Unite

Mr. K. F. Nariman, President of the Public Meeting at Sukhanand Dharamsala, C. P. Tank on Sunday to protest against Sikar State atrocities in the course of his speech in Hindi said:

He first made a reference to the crisis of events in Sikar and then added that recently citizens of Bombay as well as all over the country had raised a strong protest against the atrocities in Mysore State. That protest was effective, and it compelled the State authorities to change their attitude at least to some extent. To-day after that protest, we have assembled again to launch an equally strong protest against the oppression against the unfortunate and long suppressed people of Sikar. For days and weeks past, we have been reading about the terrible oppression and repression in that State. Unlike all other State people, the crime of the Sikar people is that they show loyalty and affection to their Rao Raja, and we should have thought that in these days when people demand complete independence and abolition of States, the tyrants would encourage this rare virtue of the State people, viz. loyalty to their feudal chief.

STATE PEOPLE'S CLAIM. The State people have as much claim for protection and defence on the Congress, as the people of British India or at least Indians abroad. Their lives and liberties have as great, nay much more value than those of the clove-dealers. On behalf of millions of sufferers in hundreds of States in India, the people ought to make a persistent and universal demand, calling upon Congress to change its present policy towards the Indian State people and stand by them in their hour of need and distress, even as the Indian State people have stood by British Indians during their hour of trial. Unless Congress take up the challenge and give a stern warning to the autocrats, our public protest will be futile and impotent; still we must raise our voice and stand by the oppressed people and render them every help and co-operation that is possible.

On behalf of the residents of Sikar in this city, we send our fraternal greetings to the brave fighters there and wish and pray for their success in their just cause. States people must not be cowed down by the bluffing tactics of the rulers, be depressed by the apparently discouraging attitude of the Congress.

FOLLOW MYSORE PEOPLE'S EXAMPLE

The brave people of Mysore have set an inspiring example before them. Like them, the people of Sikar as well as the people of all other States should unite, organise and agitate, and carry on the struggle ceaselessly and with determined courage, so that the autocrats will ultimately yield and bend before the irresistible force of the people.

May God give them strength and courage to carry on the struggle to a successful end. We on behalf of the Sikar residents of Bombay will send them a definite assurance, not only of moral sympathy but of active co-operation and support; and I do hope that Sikar residents of Bombay will solidly stand by their afflicted brethren there.

Wherever such disputes occur in civilised countries it is decided by vote of the people. The people have a right to decide what ruler or what sort of rule they should have, a plebiscite is taken as final decision. Instead of that Jaipur is adopting methods and attempting to terrorise and force people by threat of police and military force.
